

Behavior Modification for Troubled Teens

The Specialty Boarding Schools and Residential Treatment Centers represented by Teen Help are primarily designed to address various behavioral, academic, emotional and psychological issues. These come in many forms like ADD, ADHD, OCD, ODD, Bi-Polar, abandonment issues, detachment disorders, peer group problems, drug and alcohol problems etc, there are just too many to list in this short synopsis. Through the use of therapy and the various programs in place we are able to get to the source of the issues students are faced with today so the changes that are made are life-long.

These schools are designed to assist families with a troubled teen dealing with issues like:

- School Problems
- ADD/ADHD
- ODD
- Bi Polar
- Acting Out
- Running Away

- No Respect for Authority

- Respect
- Behavioral Problems
- Emotional Issues
- Confidence Problems

- Motivation Problems
- Minor Drug/Alcohol Problems
- Peer Group Problems
- Detachment Issues
- Past History of Child Abuse
- Teen Pregnancy

- Adoption Issues

Throughout the program our students learn the power of:

- Accountability
- Responsibility
- Integrity
- Self Discipline

- Gratitude
- Respect
- Self Worth

To see a complete listing of our schools go here: Specialty Boarding Schools